TOPIC: Chartered Student Organizations - Procedures

Policy Number:
E10

Chartered organizations are defined as those student clubs or organizations authorized by the Student Senate and carrying no college credit. The following procedures will be maintained:

- Clubs or organizations must complete the Student Senate charter application every academic year and be approved by Student Senate.
- Funds held by the institution for a club or organization may be used only if that club or organization holds a charter.
- Funds held by the institution for a chartered club or organization may be reallocated by the Vice President for Student Affairs if that club becomes inactive.
